Explosive Color!

Sports and sun wear are teeing off together this season.

They play in pairs or foursomes, teaming shorts, tops, slacks and skirts into one integrated costume.

In color and style they complement each other. Blazers explode into color while pleated or plain skirts give an after-shock of white.

Designers measure shorts by inches this year.

Bermudas cover the knees, Jamaica shorts unbare them by mere inches. Little Boy shorts creep higher and as for short shorts, well, the less said the better unless you've a perfect figure.

Tops are of the overblouse design and fit smoothly over Capri pants.

Nautical blue and salty white are the featured colors. Zinnia and clay reds, clarion yellows, green and grape follow in printed, checked and striped designs.

Pleats are back this year in white Arnel sharkskin in the "skort" (short skirt) and skirt design to be worn over tennis shorts or swim suits.

Oversize flowers take to the water this season in the swimsuit, beach coat and petal bathing cap printed with pansy, petunia and daisy motif.

Trend is moving towards a revival of the two-piece swim suit. For the more daring, stylists are copying the Riviera bikini.

with the swim suits. Melon teams with pistachio or flamingo, tangerine splashes on coconut ,mauve or fuchsia. The chartreuse-to-greens, yellow-to-orange and rosy pink tones are popular.

The Mothers' Union will meet on Thursday at 2.30 p.m. in the Memorial Hall, when election of officers will take place.
